Francesc de Paula Soler... is an internationally recognized artist. He is known for playing, recording, writing—both music and books—for students and scholars as well as serving as a cultural ambassador. He began studying music at age 6 and guitar at 11. He received highest honors from Conservatorio Superior de Música of Barcelona, Spain then continued post-graduate studies with Andrés Segovia and Narciso Yepes. He has studied and performed around the world, offering music in styles ranging from Spanish classical to jazz, from bebop to blues. Come fill your spirit with music!
